New Editor for the International Review for the Sociology of Sport (IRSS)

Professor John Sugden (University of Brighton, U.K.) is the new Editor of IRSS. Professor Sugden is currently working through the transition of tracking previously submitted manuscripts and is accepting new manuscripts.

Notice To Authors who have submitted manuscripts to the International Review for the Sociology of Sport (IRSS)

If you have submitted a manuscript for review to IRSS and have not been contacted by the new editor John Sugden please e-mail him as soon as possible. Please provide the details of your manuscript (author, title, date of original submission, any correspondence). Details can be sent to: J.Sugden@bton.ac.uk

ISA 2006 World Congress of Sociology Report

ISSA (Research Committee 27 of the International Sociology Association) recently participated in the XVI World Congress of Sociology in Durban, South Africa. Over 3,000 people attended the conference including approximately 50 who presented in ISSA (RC 27) sessions. ISSA Extended Board member Cora Burnett Louw has written a report about the conference and her report along with details about specific sessions, papers and presenters is available at:

<http://www.issa.otago.ac.nz/conferences.html>

ISSA Statutes Update:

The ISSA Statutes have been updated and are available at the ISSA www site: www.issa.otago.ac.nz (listed under "About ISSA").

ISSA Elections 2007

ISSA holds elections every 4 years. The next election will take place in 2007 in order to elect an Executive Board for the period of 2008-2011. Members will receive specific information about the election timetable and procedures in the near future.

ICSSPE: One of the benefits of being an ISSA member is that you have access to a wide range of resources. One such resource is the International Council of Sport Science and Physical Education (ICSSPE). The ICSSPE www site provides up to date information about research, conferences and international initiatives in the field of sport and physical education. You can access their site at: <http://www.icsspe.org>. As an ISSA member we provide you with the password for access to the members only area. The new password is: bcdm06
